Nashville, (Tennessee)

10th. June, 1828.

D. Sir,

I again take pleasure in forwarding to you a few more subscribers (to the "Friend of Reform") in addition to the number sent you on the 1st Inst.

So wit — Genl. Robert Purdy, Tho. J. Read, Capt. William Armstrong, M. Barrow, Charles Walker, James Stewart, J. M. Smith, Tho. A. Duncan, William Donleson, and John H. Smith — all of Nashville.

I will thank you to send me your paper (The Advertiser) and continue to forward the same to your friend and

M. Dawson, Esq.

Obdt. Servt.
W. E. W. Carl.

P. S. I have seen your friends the Genl. and Mrs. Jackson since I last wrote to you. They are both in good health, and requested me when I wrote again to present them best respects to you and your Family.

Mrs. J., I have frequently heard remark that she scarcely had words to express the grateful feeling she felt towards you for the unremitted and able defence which you have always shown in behalf of Female Character, when assailed by the vilest slanders of wicked and unprincipled men.

Our friend Major Lewis returned yesterday evening from the Eastward.

W. E. W. Carl.
